

Katy Holmes is wife to Stephen (almost 14 years) and mom to Annelise, Joseph and Eleanor. She spends most of her time homeschooling her children and serving alongside her husband at Camp Victory in southeast Alabama. She enjoys creating art in many different forms, especially beautiful hand-lettering. Katy grew up in a loving, Christian home and accepted Christ as her personal Savior at the ripe old age of seven. Katy was homeschooled before it was the “cool” thing to do. Camp Victory played a major role in her childhood and teen years, especially during high school. Her faith was deepened as she served four summers as a CIT (camper-in-training) which is CV’s volunteer staff. It is pretty amazing that God called her and her husband back to serve full-time many years later! She now has the opportunity to work with the CIT program as an adult.

